About the Anubodhan Journal

ANUBODHAN is a leading peer reviewed multidisciplinary (refereed) and bilingual (Hindi and English) quarterly (March, June, September and December) research journal. The journal follows UGC's Suggestive Parameters for Peer-Reviewed Journals and a dual-mode publication system, simultaneously open access online and print edition. The journal focuses on publishing original and exclusive research articles on all subjects pertaining to arts, humanities, social sciences, literature, science, management, law, philosophy, yoga, culture, religion, history, and Indian knowledge tradition. The objective of the journal is to provide a forum to the scholars, teacher-educators, educational planners, administrators, and researchers, etc. to contribute thought provoking and innovative articles, book reviews and research papers, etc., encouraging both theoretical and practical approaches.

The editors invite original, scholarly articles, review and research papers within the broad field of Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences and science, etc. for publication in Anubodhan Journal, that have not been published previously or submitted elsewhere, and that are not under review for another publication in any medium (e.g., print or electronic) should be submitted to the Editor. Submissions will be subject to a rigorous peer review process to ensure the quality and relevance of the published papers.
